MUSICAL CHAIRS

A fun game of musical chairs for Peppa's party. This game is a multi-player game which can be played singularly or with up to 4 players.

Note: Irrespective of the number of players playing, there are always 8 characters playing the game.

Select one character for each player. Drag each character into one of the semi-circles or finger pads, and touch the tick when all the players have selected a character.

Note: A single player plays against the other 7 characters in the game. In all games, a player plays against the other 7 characters, irrespective of the number of players that have chosen to play the game.

Touch and hold your finger on the semi-circle with your character to make the character move. To make your character go faster, tap your finger on the semi-circle.

When the music stops, take your finger off your semi-circle, to get your character to move to one of the empty chairs. The faster you react to the music stopping the more likely it is that your character will be able to sit on one of the chairs.

Be careful, if you take your finger off the semi-circle before the music stops, your character will sit down on the floor.

When a chair is not in use a crown appears on it.

Keep playing until there is only one chair available. The winner is the player who sits on the last chair.

PASS THE PARCEL

A party game of Pass the Parcel to play at Peppa's party. This game is a multi-player game which can be played singularly or with up to 4 players.

Touch the tick when all the players have selected a character.

When the music is playing, the player's whose turn it is, has their finger pad highlighted in green. To receive the parcel, the player must touch their finger pad.

When the music stops, the parcel appears full screen. The player whose finger pad is highlighted in green must touch the parcel to remove a layer of wrapping paper. If playing as a single player, then that player touches the parcel to remove a layer of wrapping paper irrespective of whose turn it is.

Keep passing and unwrapping the parcel until the prize is revealed. The winner is the player that removes the last piece of wrapping paper to reveal the toy.

PINATA

Each player must take it in turns to drag a coloured ribbon off the piñata. The green highlighted semi-circle indicates which player's turn it is. The player whose turn it is must then touch one of the coloured ribbons and drag it away from the piñata.

Keep pulling the ribbons away from the piñata until the piñata splits to reveal gold and silver coins.

The player whose ribbon revealed the coins automatically scores 5 points.

Players must then drag as many coins as they can onto their semi-circle to score points.

The coins score different points depending on their colour.

A silver coin scores 1 point and a gold coin scores 5 points.
